No. 1

Could you pick me up after soccer practice?
Sure. What time does it end?

At 5 p.m.

1 It's my favorite. 2 I'll see you then.
3 Thanks for your help.

No. 2

May I help you?
Can I have five chocolate doughnuts, please?
Sure. Anything else?

1 It's late. 2 That's all, thanks.
3 Nice talking to you.

No. 3

Hi, Jane.
Do you want to go to the movies tomorrow?
Sorry, I'm busy tomorrow.
1 I hope you win. 2 OK, maybe next time.
3 It starts soon.

No. 4

Is there a train station near here?
Yes, on James Street.
Can you tell me how to get there?
1 Turn left and go straight. 2 Every weekend.
3 It takes about an hour.

No. 5

Who was the phone call from, Mom?
Your uncle Jim. He's coming to visit.
When?
1 He'll be here tomorrow. 2 He lives in New York.
3 He'll stay with us.

No. 6

I can't find my cell phone.
When did you use it last?
This morning. I left it here.
1 OK, I'll see you tonight.
2 Sorry, I haven't seen it. 3 I can talk now.

No. 7

Good morning, Christine.
Dad, I don't want to go to school this morning.

What's wrong?

1 I think so. 2 It's closed.
3 I'm not feeling well.

No. 8

I'm home!
Did you get some new shoes?
Yes. Do you want to see them?
1 I'd love to. 2 I've been there before.
3 I'll take you.

No. 9

I didn't win my tennis match.
That's too bad, Pam.
I practiced really hard.
1 I'll go later. 2 You'll do better next time.
3 Don't forget your racket.

No. 10

How's your headache, Kelly?
It still hurts.
Do you need anything?
1 I'd like some water. 2 I often come here.
3 I'm too busy.

No. 11

Do you have any stamps, Dad? I need to send some letters.
I have some in my desk. How many do you need, Lisa?
Three, please.
OK, I'll get them.
Q: What will Lisa's father give her?

No. 12

What should we make for dinner?
How about pizza and salad?
I had pizza for lunch.
OK, let's make spaghetti, then.
Q: What will they do for dinner?

No. 13

One ticket for the six-thirty train to Washington, D.C., please.
I'm sorry. That train is full.
How about the seven o'clock train?
Yes, I can get you a seat on that train.
Q: What time will the woman's train leave?

No. 14

Would you like to go bowling with me tonight?

Sure. What time should we meet?

How about five at the shopping center? We can have dinner first.

Sounds good.

Q: What will the woman do tonight?

No. 15

Hello?

Hello, this is Mike. Is Karen home?

Sorry, she's out now. Can I take a message? She left her pencil case in the art room. The teacher has it.

Thank you. I'll tell her.

Q: Where did Karen leave her pencil case?

No. 16

I'm sorry, Mom. I broke your teapot this morning.

That's OK, Ben. It was old.

But you really liked it.

Don't worry. I'll get another one.

Q: What happened this morning?

No. 17

How was your winter vacation?

Great! I went to the movies three times.

(Wow, I only go once a year.

Really? I usually go every month.

Q: How often does the woman go to the movies?

No. 18

You look really tired, Scott.

I stayed up late last night.

Did you watch the soccer game on TV?

No, I was studying for today's science test.

Q: Why is Scott tired today?

No. 19

Lucy, I'm thinking of buying a pet.

Really? What do you want to get?

I haven't decided yet. I like all kinds of animals.

I think you should buy a rabbit. You can keep it in your room.

Q: What does the boy want to do?

No. 20

What did you do on the weekend?

Nothing special. I read a book at home. How about you?

I went to see a baseball game.

That sounds like fun.

Q: What did the girl do on the weekend?

No. 21

I love listening to music. My favorite band is the Beatles. I can sing all their songs. Last month, my family gave me a DVD about the Beatles for my birthday.

Q: What is the girl talking about?

No. 22 Bobby had basketball practice after school today. School finished at three.

Practice usually starts at three thirty. But today the coach was late, so it started at four. Bobby got home at six.

Q: What time did basketball practice start today?

No. 23 The library at my school has many interesting books and magazines. There are lots of computers for students to use, too. I often go there during lunchtime to relax because it's quiet.

Q: Where does the girl often go to relax?

No. 24 Last year, Meg made breakfast for her family every day. But this year, she joined the swim team. She has to practice before school, so she goes to school early. Her mother cooks breakfast now.

Q: What does Meg do before school?

No. 25 Mary's family got a dog. Mary and her father are going to go shopping today. They'll buy things to make a doghouse. Tomorrow, Mary's father will build the doghouse, and Mary will paint it.

Q: What will Mary do tomorrow?

No. 26 Lisa is on the volleyball team at school. She joined the team last year. At first, she couldn't play well. But she practiced hard, and this year, she became the captain of the team.

Q: What happened this year?

No. 27 Emi's family planned to go to a strawberry farm on the weekend, but the weather was bad on Saturday and Sunday. Monday was a holiday, so they went then instead. They picked a lot of strawberries.

Q: When did Emi's family go to the strawberry farm?

No. 28 Good afternoon, everyone. Welcome to the City Art Museum. Today, we will see some paintings by Spanish artists. The first one was painted in the eighteenth century.

Q: Who is talking?

No. 29 I like to read books about animals, but my sister doesn't. She likes to read horror stories. I borrowed one of her books today, but it was too scary.

Q: What did the boy do today?

No. 30 Koji had a really bad toothache today. His mother took him to the dentist after school, but it was too crowded. The dentist couldn't see him, so he'll go again tomorrow.

Q: What is Koji's problem?
